

Before your appointment ...

Your deposit is your appointment placeholder - without it, I do not draw & I do not put you into my calendar!

-Your design will be shared with you the day of your appointment. I do not send designs ahead of time.

Please be sure that you've clearly detailed your idea & feel comfortable that we're on the same page before then!
I'm always happy to make minor same-day changes when requested, but if we're too far off base, it's a reschedule.

-Carb up! Eat a full meal and drink plenty of fluids before arriving.

For longer appointments, you may want to bring a snack and water as well.

We will take small breaks for us both to stretch and fuel up <3

-Wear comfy clothing that allows for easy access to the place I'll be tattooing.

Sweats are a good go-to! Bikini tops for torsos/loose shorts for upper thighs are ideal.

DO NOT WEAR WHITE and other light colors, unless you don't mind ink stains.

- Consider other comfort items like headphones, earplugs, neck pillows, etc.

-Let me know ahead of time if you prefer a "Silent Appointment" or minimal talking.

A Silent Appointment is when the client and artist talk about the necessary tattoo-related procedure only, keeping small talk and chit chat to a minimum. (This can be especially helpful to those who are prone to anxiety and sensory overload, or simply for those who aren't up for socializing! Any reason is a valid reason to request a silent appointment).

-Prepare to be at the shop for a while. If I give you a time estimate, please keep in mind that it is just that - an estimate!

There are a lot of unpredictable variables such as placement or design changes, breaks, and how well a client can sit which impact how long the session will take. If you are tight for time, please let me know ahead so that we can plan appropriately as we may need to separate the appointment into multiple sessions or reschedule for a better time slot.

-Cash only for payments $400 and under. (ATM conveniently located in Luck 7 lobby!)

Thank you for booking, I look forward to our appointment!
